THE CORNWALL TOUR 2021

It was great to be back at the Carlyon Bay Hotel, after the Covid-spoiled 2020. The virus still had an impact, as we were unable to play the scheduled match at Looe, and the hotel arrangements for dinner were very different. Also, there were just 16 of us, instead of the usual 34/36.

Instead of the Looe match, we played a 4BBB tournament at Carlyon Bay golf club, easily won by David Lakin and Bill Major, with 48 points. Special wooden spoons were presented to the lowest pair, although that had to be resolved on count-back from 2 others. The course was in excellent condition and, although very windy, there was no rain!

Tuesday came, and at St Austell GC we met up with the Cornish boys at last. Much "Hail fellow, well met!" On the course, the weather was foul. Rain most of the time, even horizontal due to the wind. We even had hail at one point and the puddles on the greens, which were slower than Carlyon, just made life more difficult. Clearly, we breed them tough in Oxfordshire as we came away 5-3 victors, meaning we would at worst "retain" the shield for the series.

Back to the Carlyon Bay golf club on Wednesday, when thankfully the sun came out. Astonishingly, we did even better with a 6-2 victory, winning the Truscott trophy as well. I believe 7 players won both their matches over the two days. Dinner was a rolling affair, again due to Covid but, as usual, was excellent. The presentation had to be done outside and both Captains spoke eloquently and - thankfully - briefly!

The hotel gave us a trophy to be awarded to the best player in the team. This was won by our Captain, who produced two very comfortable wins. I hope he remembers to bring it back next year!

It is great to come away with the trophies, but much more important was the camaraderie with the Cornish boys who had clearly been looking forward to our tour as much as we had.

Our thanks go to Roger Sillence for his excellent organisation and it was sad that he was unable to join us.

Mr Grumpy

The Cornwall Golf Captains' Tour of Oxfordshire, 2021

Monday 13th September, 2021

A complete revamp of the Springs Resort and Golf Club is still ongoing, although it was clear that much of the work on the course had been completed already. A number of our visitors arrived early, apparently having encountered no serious traffic issues on their trip up from the West Country. Many old friendships were noisily renewed as Captains from both sides mingled and caught up with each others' news.

As the teams began to return to base, the early results seemed to be going the way of the home team, who took 5 of the first 6 matches; a brief wag of the tail ensued, but was not sufficient to prevent a home win by 8 matches to 4.

After a few replenishing drinks, the Cornish guys made off to their hotel, leaving the home players to enjoy a most pleasant meal in the clubhouse together.

Tuesday 14th September, 2021

In West Oxfordshire, from the very early morning, it persistently rained heavily, and deep puddles in the road required nimble driving skills if they were to be avoided. As we gathered in the Oak Room at the Oxfordshire Golf Hotel and Spa, some were thinking, perhaps even hoping, that the match would be called off.

However, the rain ceased in good time and intermittent sun followed through the afternoon. The course looked incredible from the clubhouse, and provided a stern test of golf, even to those with the lower handicaps.

Again, five of the first seven matches fell the way of the hosts, and another home win seemed an almost certainty. However, the Cornish tail played it's part again, and added a modicum of pride, before the home side squeaked another win, by 7 matches to 5. The Cornish Captains again decamped to their hotel at the Cotswolds Club, whilst their hosts stayed on to share dinner together in the clubhouse.

This win meant that the hosts had retained the Wychwood Shield for the series win, but there was still the Truscott trophy to be played for on the final day.

Wednesday 15th September, 2021

The final match in the series was to be held at the Cotswolds Club, where our visitors were staying in the hotel, so they had not far to stagger, both to eat and also to play golf. The club had organised everything pretty well for our visit, and a warm welcome was well received.

Once more the weather was kind to us and, after lunch the teams renewed hostilities, from two separate tees, in good heart. Initially, it looked like a close encounter would ensure, with the first three matches being halved. However, sadly for them, that was the high-water mark for the visitors who eventually were on the receiving end of another loss, this time by $9\frac{1}{2}$ matches to $2\frac{1}{2}$.

A gentlemen wouldn't mention this, almost certainly neither would Doug Richards nor Derek Honey, but as I am equally sure that John Stanforth would, I should mention that Oxfordshire won 7, halved the other five matches, and therefore lost none; thus, the Truscott Trophy was also won.

A fairly raucous, but well-mannered, evening followed, with the Cornish team vowing revenge at the return event from the 15th to the 18th May, 2022; if your name isn't down for the tour, be quick (roger.sillence@live.co.uk) because there aren't many places left already!

Both the Captain, Graham Robinson and his Vice-Captain, Rob Daniels, returned $2\frac{1}{2}$ points to the cause, but both were outdone by our Treasurer, Chris Spearing, who won all three of his matches, and this despite a savage handicap cut just the week before the matches.
