

Oxfordshire Golf Captains: Privacy Policy

The "Oxfordshire Golf Captains" association understands that your privacy is important to you and that you care about how your personal data is used. We respect and value the privacy of all of our members and will only collect and use personal data in ways that are described here, and in a way that is consistent with our obligations and your rights under the law.

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation, "Oxfordshire Golf Captains" is the Data Controller.

For data protection queries, please contact the Secretary of Oxfordshire Golf Captains, email address: ox.golf.caps.secretary@gmail.com

What data we collect

We may collect the following information:

- Name
- Contact information such as email address, postal address, telephone numbers
- Golfing information, such as original golf club Captaincy

How data is collected

Personal data is obtained from one or more of the following:

- Application Forms
- Member's details updates
- Member's requests to play in fixtures.
- Attendees of match fixtures or meetings hosted by the Oxfordshire Golf Captains.
- Requests for information about events/matches or annual meeting and dinner events offered by Oxfordshire Golf Captains.

How do we store and protect your data

- Membership data is stored on the Microsoft 'oneDrive' cloud storage system.
- Only PDF files of members contact details which cannot be modified are shared with Committee members via the password protected OneDrive'.
- Contact details in pdf form are published on the website only for those members who have given their permission. This area of the website is Password protected.
- Data stored on the Secretary's personal computer is password protected as the Membership database maintenance officer.

What we do with the data we collect

Personal data may be used to:

- Provide golf fixture and competition information.
- Notify you of changes to membership information.
- Seek your views or comments on Society related matters.

- Send you communications that may be of interest to you about Oxfordshire Golf Captains. These may include information about Matches; Newsletters; Events; Dinners; Meetings; Clothing.
- We do not send Marketing communications.
- We have identified the lawful basis for the processing of data for the above activities as legitimate interests. The legitimate interest is that of conducting membership activities for that of the Oxfordshire Golf Captains.

Who we share your data with

We may share your contact details with Fellow members on a controlled basis.

Individuals' Rights

The General Data Protection Regulation provides data subjects certain rights relating to the processing of their personal data. Given the nature of personal data processed by us, and the lawful basis we have identified for doing so you have the following rights:

- You may request from us access to the personal data we process concerning you through making a subject access request (SAR).
- You may request rectification of the personal data we process concerning you where it is incomplete or inaccurate.
- You may request, subject to certain criteria, the erasure of the personal data we process concerning you.
- You may request that we restrict the processing of personal data concerning you. Restriction means that we will only store the personal data and not further process it.
- You have the right to object to us processing your personal data.
- You have the right to data portability whereby we will provide you (or another data controller where technically feasible) your personal data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format.
- You can make a request expressing your rights by contacting the Secretary (email above)
- If you want to express any of these rights, contact the Secretary.
- Lodging a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.
- If you feel that your personal data has been, or is being, processed in an inappropriate manner; or you feel that your rights, as described above have been infringed, you may lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO is the UK's supervisory authority regarding data protection matters and has a responsibility to act on complaints made to it. You may lodge a complaint by visiting the website below or calling the ICO's helpline on: 0303 123 1113. <https://ico.org.uk/concerns>