*Cornwall Golf Captains =v= Oxfordshire Golf Captains
Monday 15th to Wednesday 17th May, 2023*

Following the team's return to Oxfordshire in May, administrator Chris Spearing wrote:-

"There were 27 travellers this year - slightly down on last year - so some new blood would be welcome. Two members enjoyed their first trip, Neil Flint of The Wychwood and Brian Kay from Chippy, sorry, The Cotswold Club.

Unlike last year's drowned rats' impression, we were blessed with good weather on our annual journey to "God's country".

During the trip, a snooker tournament took place, organised by Bill Major and this year's champions were two Roberts, Stroud and Branch.

Day one saw us playing at Looe Golf Club, a first for most, if not all, of us. A very pleasant course, though the greens were a little on the slow side. Despite valiant efforts we lost  $9\frac{1}{2}$  -  $2\frac{1}{2}$ , with the only pair recording a victory being Roger Davies and Dave Bates.

Probably the highlight of the tour was a return to St Enodoc after a few years' hiatus. Always exciting to play, the greens were quite fast, despite some members apologising that work had been done on them! Indeed, a culture shock after the previous day. A slight improvement but still losing  $7\frac{1}{2}$  -  $4\frac{1}{2}$ .

As usual, the final day was at Carlyon Bay, where the course was in good condition, but that did not stop us losing  $8\frac{1}{2}$  -  $3\frac{1}{2}$ . Some of us, myself included, lost all three matches. Irrespective of the results, a great time was had by all.

As always, the Carlyon Bay Hotel staff looked after us magnificently, and we are already booked in for 2024.

Chris

Chris Spearing."

*Feldon Valley, Witney Lakes and Burford Golf Clubs
Monday, 11th to Wednesday, 13th September, 2023*

Having convincingly won all three matches in Cornwall in May, I'm sure our Cornish friends arrived at Feldon Valley Golf Club in high spirits and with the hope of achieving a rare victory on "foreign" soil. Equally, the home teams were determined to reverse the latest trend, but all that was forgotten as the 44 players began to arrive and mingle.

A very warm welcome was received from our hosts at Feldon Valley, and the weather was just as pleasant as the teams made their way onto the course for a two-tees start. With the first six matches back in the clubhouse, the scores were all square at three matches each. However, the tail wagged for Oxfordshire who had much the best of it, eventually winning overall by  $6\frac{1}{2}$  matches to  $4\frac{1}{2}$ .

The Witney Lakes Resort offered the same warm welcome to the players on the following morning, although the overcast skies were an accurate forecast of the heavy rain that fell for a period during the afternoon. With half the matches concluded, Oxfordshire marginally had their noses in front, but this time it was the visitors whose tail wagged and the match was eventually halved at 6 matches each.

This meant that all results were possible on the following day, both teams being able to win either or both of the trophies on offer.

On the third day the teams began to gather early at Burford; all but a couple of the Oxfordshire team had travelled to Cornwall a few months earlier, so ribald comment and laughter was frequent. The staff at Burford were welcoming and keen to ensure that we had all we needed, and they also provided a pleasantly warm and sunny day. With six of the twelve matches complete, the scores were level at three matches each. The Oxfordshire tail again proved too strong for our visitors, (who might also have been suffering after three nights away from home?) and the final match score was  $7\frac{1}{2}$  matches to the hosts and  $4\frac{1}{2}$  for the visitors.

The superb day concluded with dinner in the clubhouse, where Keith Henley, the Oxfordshire Captain, was presented with both the trophies, to be retained until our return to Cornwall in May.
